Metro Club Respini Tournament

The 2009 Metro Respini had 37 players grouped into 4 all-play-all divisions. The 'A' division was FIDE rated as it has been since 2004.

'A' In the absence of highly rated Tristan Boyd (now a FM) and Stephanus Kurniawan, it was left to youngsters Yita Choong and Ganesh Viswanath to impress. Yita was able to finish first with an unbeaten 7.5/9, whilst Ganesh came 2nd one point behind, and lowest rated Derek Elkington showed his capabilities by finishing third. Ganesh's victory over top rated Michael Kueh is given on page 3.

'B' Robert Baumgartner had a critical last round win over Chris Cuellar to finish first one point ahead of Chris. Hard working property officer Dougal McLean was able to take out 2nd place.

'C' New member Navid Hamidi proved to be too strong for this division as he won all seven of his games. Treasurer Andrew Arnold finished in second place.

'D' New member David Russell finished first with 6.5/8 a point clear of Bernard Laugery in second.

Thanks to Peter Roza for organising this tournament and to Mike McGregor for arranging the games to go onto the Metro Club website <http://www.metrochessclub.org.au/>

The cross tables are given on pages 3 and 4, together with Metro chess club information related to its 50th year and the Christmas social.

Metro Christmas Social

The Metro Christmas Social had the usual format of speeches, trophy presentations, raffles, refreshments and lightning doubles. During the festivities, the club members were delighted that Ray Johnstone, despite his recent illness, was able to socialise with them.

To commemorate the club's 50th year, a booklet has been produced thanks mostly to Garry Taylor and Mike McGregor, this shall be presented to club members in 2010.

Perth Club AGM

At the Perth Chess Club AGM Martin Daniels was elected as President after his first year of service to the club. Martin thanked the organisers of the club and expressed his happiness at how the club was progressing.

Douglas Tunmar has kindly agreed to take on the role of Secretary next year with training underway kindly provided by Norbert Muller, whilst John Brooke and Joe Klimczak will continue to provide much assistance in the organisation for the club.

Fixed Opening Tournament

For each round players had two games (30 mins each player per game) with a set opening against the same opponent - one game with white and the other game with black.

The results in the cross table below are based on the score over the two games (2 wins or 1 win and 1 draw = 1 point). However, for players on the same score the results of all games were used to determine placings and this method determined that Robert finished first.

Martin Curtis again kindly organised interesting openings for each round.

Handicap Tournament

The players had 30 minutes for each round plus / minus 1 minute for every 100 rating points difference between the opponents (organised by Norbert and Joe).

This was a very well supported tournament and the time handicap resulted in a number of close games with players such as Jacques, John and Victor scoring more than some of the higher rated players. This is shown in the cross-table below with the players in rating order.

Next year this handicap tournament should be even more interesting with players having 30 minutes plus / minus 1 minute for every 50 rating points difference between the opponents.
