ACF Ratings

Nedeljko Tomic convincingly won the 2008 Perth Club Championship with 6.5/7 - 1.5 points clear of 2nd placed Peter Dix and Rob Maris.

Ned's impressive score was achieved against a tough field with 6 players rated over 1700. Of these, Peter was the only one to avoid defeat - Peter was close to beating Ned before he got into time trouble. In the last round Ross List had played well to get a pawn up on Ned, but later on Ross self-destructed giving Ned a piece and consequently the game.

Ned and Natalie showed signs of improvement in their play with each gaining fine victories over both top rated players: Rob and Wolfgang. Martin Curtis also managed to beat Wolfgang, but in the last round Martin lost to unrated Rik Kort. Rik had previously proved his capabilities by achieving draws with Natalie and Ross and reaching a level endgame with Rob.

This 7 round swiss had many interesting and close games, for example Colin Walker drew all three games from rounds 4 to 6.

A big thankyou to John Brooke for opening the club up around 7pm and locking up at the end. Also many thanks to Norbert Muller and Joe Klimczak for running the event in an efficient and pleasant manner. With games beginning promptly at 7.30, the 90 mins flagfall led to the last games being completed by a 'not too late' 10.30.

The cross table is provided on page 6.
